

Carnival

APRIL 15¢

© 1950 PUBLICATIONS

HOLLYWOOD QUICKIE

RUSSIA'S SECRET 'KINSEY' REPORT!
Facts and Figures on Russia's Sex Life

WICKED LADY OF PARIS

(see inside)

Carnival

卷之三

Vol. 2 No. 4

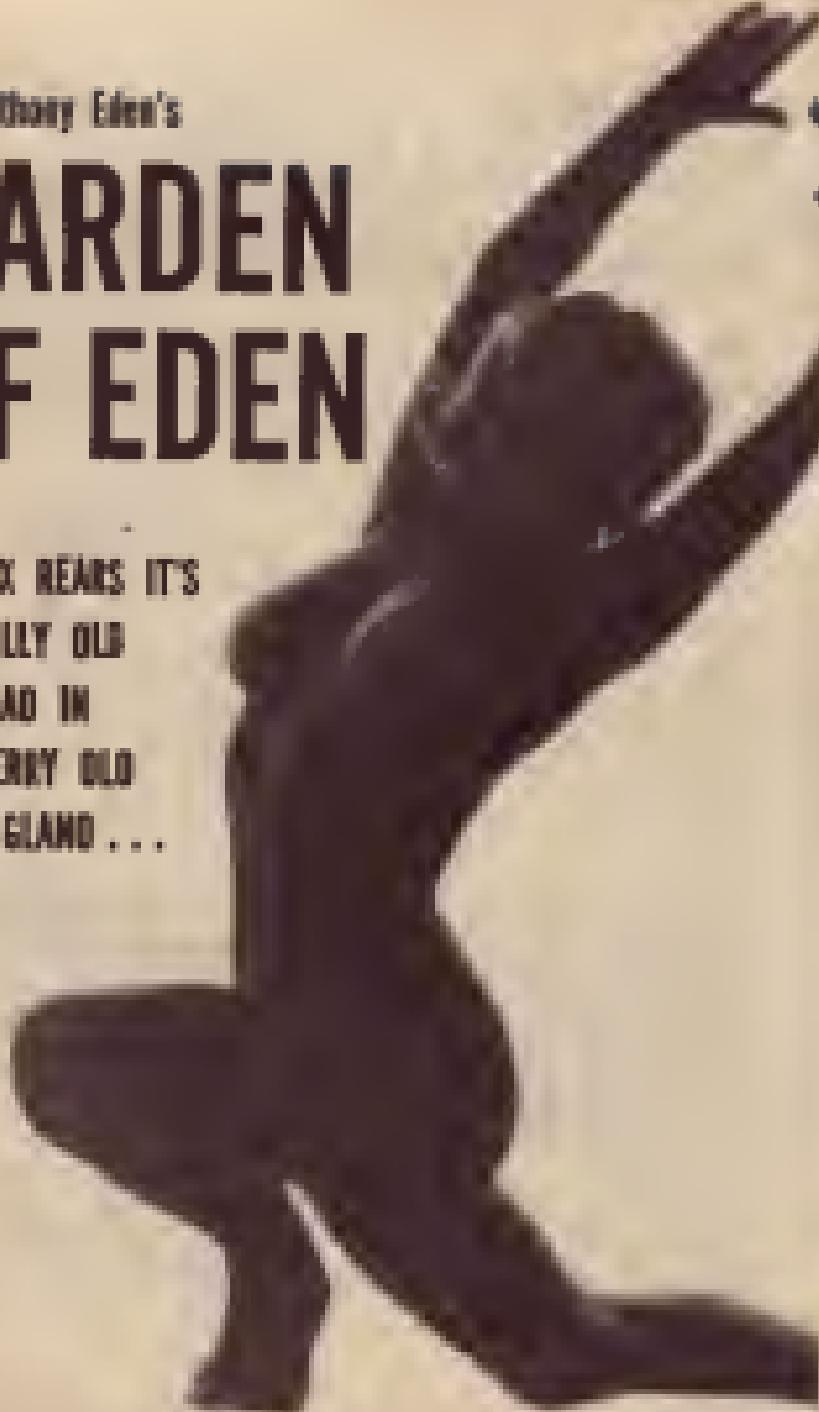

DEMP'S GARDEN OF EDEN	11
CASE OF THE MARTIRES COUP	11
WHAT'S MY SIGN	12
HIGH BUBBA HILL	13
MISSY'S SECRET KENNY REPORT	13
THE MARTIES HAVE LANDED	13
GREATEST BODY OF KNOWLEDGE	13
QUEEN OF THE LYING DEAD	13
HOLLYWOOD GUIDE	43
BURNED ALIVE	48
MADE OF SIN	53
KNIGHT SHORT	54
SHOCKED WOMAN OF FAITH	54
WATCH THAT BUMP	55
SPICE JONES CAPTURES A BEAUTY	55

Sir Anthony Eden's

GARDEN OF EDEN

SEX BEARS IT'S JOLLY OLD HEAD IN MERRY OLD ENGLAND . . .

Homosexual "hooligans" run wild

Draped neckless naked systems

★ A SENSE of an Ascot tie has crept into Sir Anthony's Garden of Eden, and is turning Britain into a veritable sex circus! Although the political climate of the tight little island has remained stoutly conservative, the moral atmosphere has taken on a Liberal, not to say radical, tone. In the past year there have been nude dancers before Parliament, a swooping take-off in the illegitimacy rate, a startling rise in prostitution and homosexuality, near-bare bosoms at Royal receptions, and a set of public disputes which would have

This woman advertised for decent clothing, yet ed in more windows, seemed lusty even in the days of that other Elizabeth—the Virgin Queen. Most lofty scandal was kicked off late last year by the appearance before the Queen of Jackie Lane (sister of starlet Marc Lane) in a dress that had a cleavage running from neckline to navel. The not usually fastidious London Mirror raised the roof over this "impropriety and lack of respect." Only ten days earlier, turned the Mirror, England's answer to Marilyn Monroe, Diana Dors, had snared the Royal orb with a dress whose "high and mighty bosom was so sumptuously displayed one feared she would burst out laughing."

Typical gown for Royal reception

British TV star Barbara's dazzling looks make Boys' Own look predictable.

Anne Rivers, and what appears to be two Mr. Taylors with Michael Wilding, great Duke of Edinburgh. He is at right. On left is Jackie Lee.

But other members of the government were even more embarrassed when it was revealed that buxom young Shirley Crawford had departed in the Royal treasury building in a costume which was scantier than a tuppenny stamp for the edification of 100 Postal employees. An indignant M.P., Arthur Lewis, brought photos of Miss Crawford in her entire costume (a thin coat of aluminum paint and a small feather) to the immediate attention of Parliament. They promised a thorough and prompt probe.

This is Justice Lane in dress that caused scandal at Royal encyclopaedia.

Meanwhile rural England was rocked by another set of nude photographs. Mayor Alf Hall of Doncaster had accidentally let a set of undraped poses he'd taken fall under the public gaze of the community. Britain quivered with scandal, but Alf stood pat: "Picture photogrephy is art," he said. His model, Adrienne Germaine, harked him up. "Alf never did nothing objectionable or even naughty," she told him.

Shirley Crawford, sensational Postal girls' swimming pool and a dancer.

Back in Parliament certain M.P.'s uttered behind their Trews' as a sociologist charged that Merry Old England was gayer than ever. Arrests for homosexual offenses were up 32% and this man, and even in Parliament there were, at that moment, practicing homosexuals. Evidence of the growing influence of queendom was the sweeping fad of "Teddyboyism," whose cultists affect Edwardian dress, including frock coats and velvet collars, roam the streets in gangs, and openly flaunt their homosexuality.

The British sex revolution may be part of a changing pattern in British morals. Novelist Marghanita Laski stated that virginity is no longer at a premium in Britain. She said: "When you're going steady with your boyfriend it is now considered all right to sleep with him if you both have marriage ahead of you."

The statement lit a bonfire under British churchmen, but not all opposed it. One said: "Many centuries ago truly Christian ideas got mixed up with... the unnatural theory that all things physical are evil. Thus there has been the wrong obsession that physical expression of love is immoral." This cleric, Rev. L. John Collins, canon of St. Paul's church in London, reflected the changing times: "There is nothing Christian about the wrong worship of virginity," he said. He added, though, that he hoped "immorality such as is practised in Scandinavia" would not spread to the British Isles. "Sex on such a basis," he said, "must lead to a general weakening of the social structure."

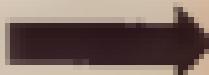

"London Bridge is falling down, falling down, falling down.

London Bridge is falling down, my fair lady."

The Case Of The PLASTERED CORPSE!

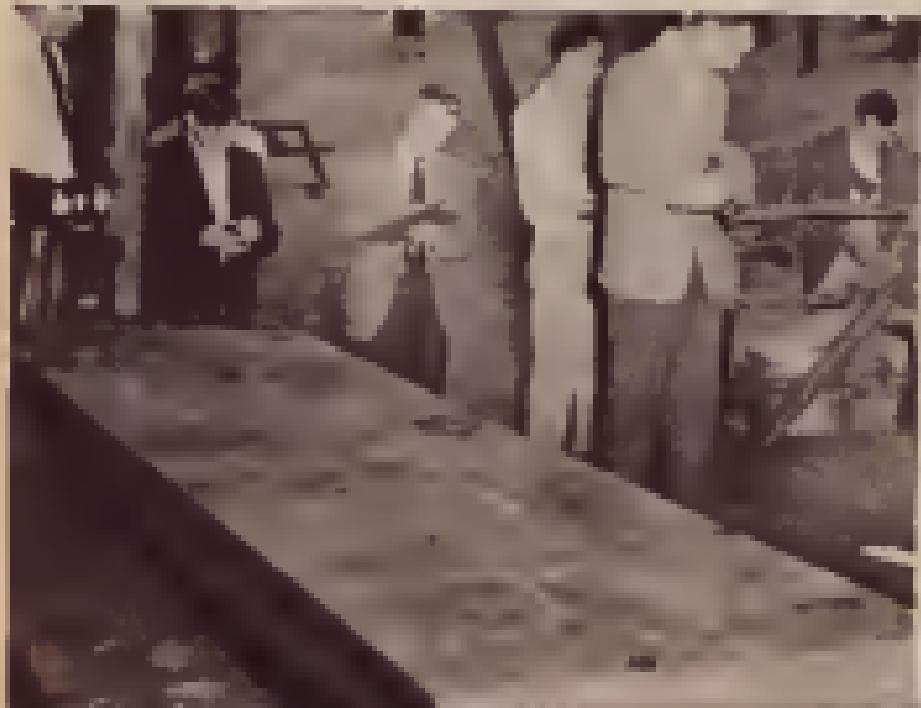

There was no doubt about it—the death did wasn't alive. The only clue to the mystery were these facts: (1) the man was strangled, and (2) plastered.

Left: "Hawkins" caught red-handed. Right: apprentice cop finds clues

"Just give us the facts m'am," said the rookie detectives.

★ surprise! That's no corpse. It's Melly the mannequin—a dumb doll used by the Hagerstown, Md. Police to train rookie cops in murder investigation. Melly's plastic "body" was dropped in the Hagerstown city park in gruesome condition—ketchup all over the head, clothes torn, wig crooked. Rookie had to figure out "who done it." Solution? Mean old Sgt. Bland, Homicide.

But the doll dummed up!

Left: rookie cops take cues, and cues to killer. Above: "Corpse" is expected to况up till next "murder."

WHAT'S MY LION?

By Bozo, the Lion

My name is Bozo. I'm a lion. I'm in the lion business. But sometimes I feel like quitting! The things you have to do to keep your union card in this game! Like this time my manager calls me up and says: "Bozo, I got a terrific publicity bit set up for us!" Right then I knew there is trouble coming. Last publicity bit he sets me up for I end up in the York Avenue ASPCA for questioning. But in my racket you can't afford to show you're scared of anything. It ruins your rep. Get me? So I bite—on the pro-cation, I mean. "OK, Sam," I say. "Spill the inspiration."

"Well," says Sam, "I got it set up so you're gonna do a story with Sequin, the famous strip . . . uh, I mean exotic dancer . . . Sequin gets in this big bed, see? then you . . ."

"Now hold on, Buster," I roar, "this is beginning to sound like another one of those weird brainstorms.

Let's have that from the top again."

"Kid," Sam says, "this story is a natural. Fearless strip-teh, exotic dancer, isn't scared of a ferocious lion? It's got everything! Sex, suspense, human interest, humor."

First thing I know, Sam has me up in some West Side hotel and there's the big beautiful doll standing there with a kind of a lovey-dovey look in her eyes. I begin to feel a little shaky. Next thing I know, this doll—Sequin, is getting into a negligee that makes her look like Monroe. Up she

"I got nothing against beautiful dames, but frankly, does this look like a job for a hon?"

hops into the bed, and pats the sheets beside her. "Hop in," she says, "I won't hurt you."

"Sam," I says, "You can tear up our contract. I ain't going through with this!" But Sam has a kind of chair-and-whip look on him, so I figure, oh well, what can I lose? And I hop gingerly on the bed with this exotic type. Well, the bulbs are popping, and the photographer is pushing us this way and that, and the whole thing's getting on my nerves something fierce. "What a story!" Sam keeps buzzing. "The King of the Beasts and the Queen of the Strippers—uh, croissants."

"Sam," I says, "I hate to bring this up, but it ain't gonna work." Sam stares at me. "How come?" he asks.

"Well," I says, "I know it never occurred to you to offer me a chair unless it was legs first, but it happens I'm a lady! I mean! See? No man!" With this, Sam sinks into a coma. I set our contract and head for the nearest subway. Hear there's a good job out in Chi, catching mice.

Hey, let me sleep—I'm tired.

HIGH SIERRA HELL!

★ THEY TACK on brass man-kicks, but they leave Marines out in the sub-zero, freezing their rifle-butts off during the special arctic combat-training week the leathernecks have come to call High Sierra Hell. At Pikes Peak Meadows, 6,800 feet up in the California Sierras, the men learn the ins and outs of cold-weather warfare with no holds barred.
For six rugged days the marine rookies learn the fundamentals of fighting without freezing; how to conserve energy; how to carry 15 pounds of gear and how to keep themselves, their weapons and their socks dry. The last four days put the shivering boots to the test. "War" is declared with an Aggressor Force of tough combat vet-

Hell freezes over on the mountain as these Marines learn to battle ice, snow, wind and the cold hard steel of a bayonet . . .

areas, clashing in hand-to-hand combat with the deep-freeze trainees. It's rough, tough, and miserable, but it may keep us from losing a war.

Your fingers freeze, your feet are numb, the gun sticks to your hand, and you sleep in snow, but you learn to fight sub-zero war!

RUSSIA'S SECRET KINSEY REPORT

Survey exposes sexual revolution behind the Iron Curtain

★ In late 1953, Dr. Kinsey's book, "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female" was published. The facts were based on a survey of the sex habits of the American female. In early 1954, noted Soviet critic D. V. Leonov in the Russian magazine Problems of Philosophy and of Kinsey's book, "Despicable . . . nothing more than pornographic hash, clumsily masked as science. The depravity, sexual wantonness and perversion depicted by Kinsey will hardly surprise anyone who is the least bit acquainted with the American way of life."

What Leonov didn't know, was that a secret survey on the sex habits of Russian and other satellite women was in the works. The results make Kinsey's report look tame 20 years ago, to even suggest a survey on the morals of Communist women would be worth a man's life—for that was when prostitution was banned in the USSR. Today, however, prostitution, sex camps, free love, encouraging childbirth whether by legitimate means or illegitimate means and wholesale sexual depravity runs wild throughout Russia. This sexual license is the key to Communists seducing youngsters into conforming to the Cominform.

Sweet couple on trial "honeymoons."

The sex survey was under the direction of Dr. Alexei Antonov who not only questioned the women on their sex habits and morals, but even had written permission from Moscow to witness sexual orgies at summer free love youth camps near Moscow; the Military base at Brno, Czechoslovakia; the city of Stalinvaros in Hungary; Debrecen; Maritsa Mine in Bulgaria and the Home for Young Workers at Elbag, Poland.

Among the younger women it was learned that many had sought out different sex partners during a single night's party. A large number of Russian teen-agers were badly infected with VD (because of lack of doctors and medical facilities, only one in 20 can be treated for VD today in Russia). This was also true among the soldiers. (The Military Health Institute at Brno reported 2,161 cases of VD in a 3-month period. One 15-year-old girl had infected 34 soldiers in that garrison town during that period of time). Of 3,000 women workers at Stalinvaros, over 2,100 had venereal disease. Some cities even had hospitals exclusively for women soldiers infected with VD.

Prostitution in Russia consists of loose women working in brothels. In De-

Young girls now frequent streets of Moscow in pick-up walking groups.

In 1960, Hungary, a town of only 12,000, there were over 50 brothels run by Communist officials who pocketed the profits. The STD rate was so high that the houses were forced to close down "officially." But it's been proven they still exist as "women's dormitories"—another name for the oldest profession.

What we in America would consider the call girl racket or pick-up date flourishes in Russia as normal social dating. An American writer who visited Russia recently told of meeting "average" Russian girls. It was considered an acceptable evening to approach a girl, ask her for a date, take her out and spend the night with her. For this she expected to be paid—and her behaviour is considered as good social practice. The secret sex report bears this out.

In 1960, Gurwitsch and Woroschilt discovered that of 144 Russian women questioned who had had pre-marital sex experience, 21% had more than one partner.

Are the Russians in sexual revolt? . . .

In the new Antov survey, 59% of 646 women who had had pre-marital sex, had three or more partners. This age group was between 17 and 22.

In 1984, Weissenberg reported that 48% of 34 Russian women admitted having coitus with their fiancés. Today, the report is 90% plus.

Russian promiscuity is so rampant that one town, Otrava, has 65% of the population infected with

STD. (U.S. officials learned from a fugitive doctor, that 200,000 people out of the 300,000 working in the uranium mines are also infected).

Illegitimate birthrate in Russia and the satellites is at an all time high. State controlled nurseries, bonuses for having children, lack of parental responsibilities have allowed the youngsters to run wild. Dance halls and restaurants are filled with young girls who are willing to sell themselves for a good meal. Thus the soldiers and the Communist officials have their pick of young girls to act as their mistresses. Choices young beauties working in factories, usually end up as "housekeepers" at the officials' houses.

Girls from Soviet upper brackets indulge in pickup, promiscuity and sex.

As one visitor puts it, "The way to pick out a high class prostitute, is to spot a girl with fine clothes and a well fed look. People (in the satellite countries) respect the girl who is poorly dressed. In Russia, the stigma of sexual promiscuity is gone, because several decades of free love have erased it. Twenty years from now in the satellite countries it will also vanish as a social stigma—and a prostitute or a loose girl will be accepted as an equal.

Communism has captured the souls of its young through the captivation of their youthful bodies. The Reds reject fidelity in marriage and virginity before marriage as an outmoded American ideology. Thus, by satisfying the sex urges of the young with sexual license, they enslave the minds of the teen-agers—and keep them captive.

Radio Free Europe and other Allied Agencies have verified the wholesale debauchery of free love and sexual decadence behind the Iron Curtain. The Antov report (only part of which was smuggled through the Eastern Zone) published here for the first time in Carnival—simply attests factually to these conditions.

Diagrammatic photo shows dress the.

S.O.S. MARTIANS HAVE LANDED!

Monsters sighted in California.
Believed to be from Outer Space!

★ ARMED! Two men, believed to be Martians, have been sighted on the streets of Long Beach, California. Description: About eight feet tall, with long skinny legs. The pair were seen to leap eight to nine feet into the air, and cover up to fifteen feet with a single stride! They are armed with what appear to be disintegrator ray guns, and are wearing space helmets with whip antennae and large earphones. Warning: Little is known about these men. They may be dangerous. Lock all doors! For exact information turn page!

Matthew found his boat is still

Calvin with girls there in face of mysterious visitors from water ahead

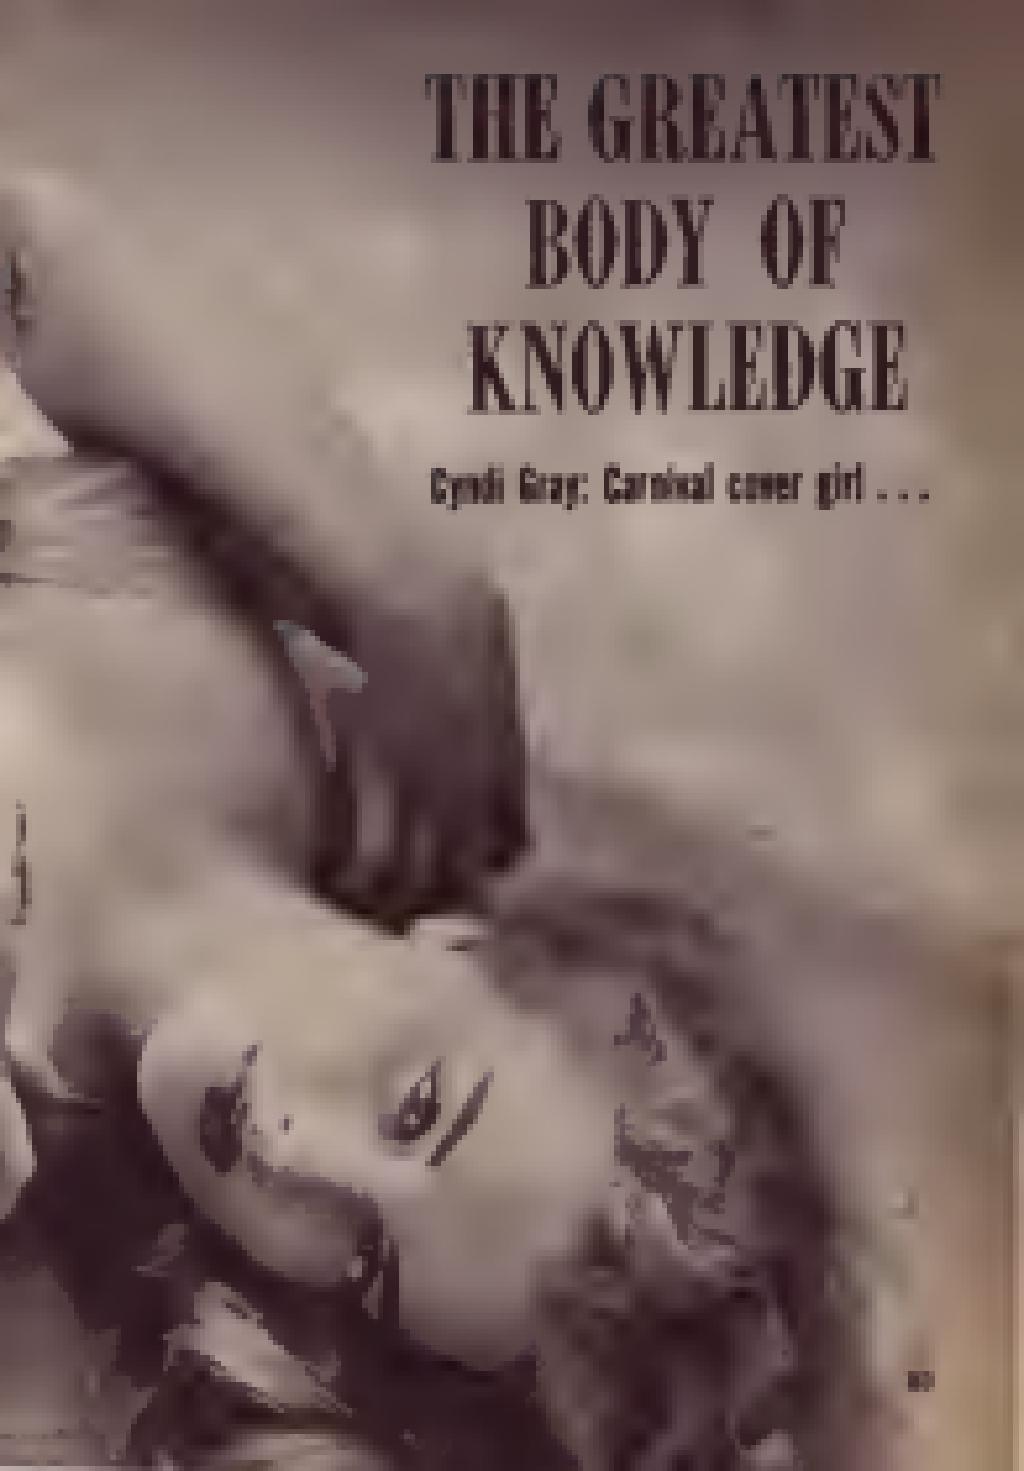

Matthew and his boat. Most Long Beach residents were unprepared

Ungrimed, friendly "Masters" are members Tom Wagner and Bill Gudley.

THE GREATEST BODY OF KNOWLEDGE

Syndi Gray: Carnival cover girl . . .

A top Hollywood agent said: "A single day with Cyndi is an education!"

You could learn plenty from Cyndi . . .

★ or otherwise, they call super-girl Cyndi Gray (28-34-39). "Beauty and The Brain." This 37" body of knowledge is so smart she has filmland wolves combing the encyclopedias for small talk. She reputedly has an IQ of 149, and was carrying on a serious correspondence with Einstein when she was barely old enough to sit at a desk! How does this frightening intelligence affect her social life? Cyndi says demurely: "I never try to out-smart a man." Despite the fact that she's been swamped with movie offers,

In thoughtful mood.

Her holiday, spontaneity.

Thinking helps her to play her matador rôle.

She says: "Sometimes I scare myself."

husky-voiced Cyndi is keeping Hollywood waiting until she finishes her U.C.L.A. pre-med course. Then she'll decide whether to become a surgeon or a film star. When Cyndi isn't reading, writing or holding off Hollywood wolves, she rides her motor scooter, plays with her pet white rat, and studies anatomy.

A girl of many interests, Cyndi prefers ones that are "well rounded."

QUEEN OF THE LIVING DEAD

Her ladies-in-waiting make debuts in cellars reeking from opium smoke . . .

The girls come to her for dreams.

Thousands of opium pipes stand

A dark cellar, full of empty-eyed women. The Queen steps coolly through the filth, directing the work of her attendants. There's a sweet, searing odor in the air. The smell of opium—of living death!

in Nuzullah's den go up in smoke for her the other police raid

★ IN IRAN today more than 65% of the poorer classes smoke opium. Of these almost half are women who take their dope in separate dens apart from the men. Biggest supplier of opium to these women is Nuzullah, Hakim, Opium Queen of Tehran. A tough, tattooed unkempt woman in her thirties, Nuzullah is boss of the female addicts, runs a string of about seventy dens. Most of her customers are middle-aged house-

When opium supply was cut off, the addicts collapsed on Takao street.

Addicts are deluged and mortified.

Poor people buy rich dreams from the Queen of Poppies wives, government workers, and drifters; but the "Queen" especially encourages the younger trade, and has several deluxe cells where she sends teenagers for their first lessons in opium smoking. These plush rooms have silk upholstery, soft music, and oriental rugs. Macmillan doesn't mind laying out a little loot to get people smoking light pipe of adder in photo taken in paved open air.

started. She knows that in a few months, the girls won't care where they smoke, as long as they get the stuff. She knows, too, that only young, attractive girls can maintain the high income needed to support their habit. Prostitution can pay well. Right now the "Queen" is in jail. She was picked up by agents of Governor Teymour Bakhriz in a mass dope cleanup of the city—an attempt to rid Tehran of a vice which has sapped its strength for 300 years. But, though Nazmeh is stored behind bars, the thousands of girls she initiated into the opium habit still wander dreamily through the streets of Tehran, selling favors to get money for more dreams—forgetful dreams.

HOLLYWOOD QUICKIE

It takes only 12 hours to make a quickie film in L. A.

★ The sensational exploration of the 2,000 year old tomb of Princess Itmay in "Karo" Egypt is enacted in a burlesqued documentary film for the cameras at Quality Picture Studios in Hollywood.

Bar is based on old burlesque acts

A film like this, designed for home movie and juke box release is called a "Quickie" in Hollywood jargon because of its low budget and rapid shooting as compared with major productions.

Although the actual shooting takes only a day, from 6 a.m. to 4 p.m. weeks of preparation are necessary for such items as casting, writing Little Jack Little listens to his mommy—learns to dance . . .

Jack Little and Ione Clares practice dance which plays big part in the

ing and rewriting the script, rehearsals, building sets, and other production problems.

Quality's latest release, Tomb Sweeper Concern, will be marked as a 430-foot home movie reel. Several sequences will be truncated out for jukebox use.

Stars of the picture are ace barney come Little Jack Little, Ione Clares, known as the girl with the hour-glass figure, Sally Starr, a TV and movie actress, and John Mathers—straight man.

BURNED ALIVE!

Held back by nothing, Seattle firemen stared horrified as this driver passed under his own turned truck, burned to death before their eyes.

Kim Novak makes the pay in Hollywood

Kim Novak crashed and cashed in on

WAGES OF

★ A 22-year-old green-eyed blonde, otherwise known as the "Fluorescent Blonde" alias curvaceous Kim Novak has discovered that it pays to be "vivid" in Holly-

Kim cavorts with Frank Sinatra in movie about show-

Hollywood's sexy
SIN

Right: Model: Ann

wood. She's played more fallen women in the movies in the past year than ever appeared on the pages of Polly Adler's book. Her first big part in Prashner was her start in the sinful direction. Her latest sinning is evident in The Man With The Golden Arm. Adequately equipped for the job, she measures 37-33-37½, her role also was the cause of the movie being refused a Production Code seal of approval. Her only approval is from her fans.

Her real name is Dorothy Newark. Future films will not let go a beauty.

KNIGHT SIGHT where else but in Hollywood . . .

YOU CAN OWN ALL
40 - 22 - 35%
OF
Jayne Mansfield
... by ordering your
BIG-AS-LIFE PIN-UP
Today!

Send me a copy of the BIG-AS-LIFE Pin-up
Photo-Book. I enclose check or money order for $1.00. Please send my copy as soon as possible.

Name: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Only $1.

She's at your favorite newsstand too!

WICKED WOMAN OF PARIS

★ OR THE EVER THAT SIN MADE famous, Martine Carole has become a sensation by earning the title of Wicked Woman Of Paris, all due to the endless succession of seductive movie roles in which she's been cast. In fact, if they ever give an Oscar for performances in daring decolleté Miss Carole will undoubtedly come out in front. She's appeared nearly disrobed to the waist in at least one scene of each of the twenty-odd pictures in which she's starred, starting with the spicy Lovers Of Martine says: "Why do they argue over my anatomy? Why don't they argue

Caroline, and ending with her current film, On The Riviera, and Nana, some scenes of which are shown here. Her performance in Nana had its usual good points, but the extent of her exposure caused such a scandal that even the French almost banned it. All this "bad" publicity has made Martine one of the best paid stars in European films! Her recent picture,

If I am soft? That's what crews --

Adorable Creatures features a scene in which Martinez, dressed only in an open kimono, wrestles with an eager sailor. Says Martinez: "I do only what the film script says."

In Adorable Creatures

Opposite top, the Blue ensemble

WATCH THAT BUMP!

This stony bump was salvaged from New York show when officials thought it too "frank." Girl is dancer Kathryn Lee.

Books on the Standard System

LOSE WEIGHT

10

REDUCE

卷之三

Spot Reducer

Releasing • Seeding Penetrating Measures

Like a magic word, the "Good Luckstar" always stays away with that any part of your body where love lingers and laddies, whenever you have extra strength and health, the "Good Luckstar" was said even to whispering a possible, slender and graceful figure. The history of this exceptionally dangerous Luckstar is that the master is an angry old man, the mouth quid, nose and eyebrows. He sometimes is dressed like a樵夫, a charcoal-burner, a dray or a butcher.

President's home has undergone the usual, or more, alterations, etc., etc. The usual methods and tools of the carpenter, mason, painter, etc., have been used in the "alterations" and in the new construction of your new house. It is a matter of course that the new "alterations" and additions will be in the same style as the old house. There are no "alterations" or additions to be made in the old house.

ANSWER QUESTIONS

卷之三

三才圖會

There is a lot of time and money to be had. You have nothing to go but success, and the help you always want and need.

Worried about a high fever for two days? Don't let me tell you what to do.

卷之三

1958 日本写真年鑑

卷之三

19. Journal of the American Statistical Association, 1937, 32, 100-104.

— 1990 年 1 月 1 日起施行

and the 1950s, as well as the 1960s, 1970s, and 1980s. The 1990s were a period of significant growth and development, with the introduction of new technologies and the expansion of the Internet. The 2000s were a period of significant change, with the rise of social media and the growth of mobile technology. The 2010s were a period of significant technological advancement, with the development of artificial intelligence and the rise of big data.

卷之三

LAS VEGAS

SPICE JONES HOOKS A BEAUTY!

Bandleader Spice Jones puts in bid for second catch! How'd you like this over your mantle-piece?

SPICE JONES - 32
BY SPICE JONES
LEGENDS OF SPICE JONES
NEIGHBOURS
GIRL - BUSINESS
WIFE - 25
HIPS - 37
SPICE JONES - IDA MERCIER

HOW TO HAVE LONG BEAUTIFUL NAILS IN 9 MINUTES!

AT LAST! New scientific natural nail compound eliminates and REPAIRS ugly short nails. Not a polish. Not artificial plastic nail's, but a miracle home treatment to lengthen and strengthen your nails. REPAIRS worn, broken nails quickly...becomes jagged nails neatly.

PERIODIC TABLE

INTERVIEW WITH BERT

卷之三

MEMORANDUM

FROM: MEN IN DANGER magazine

EDWARD PLESSMAN • 205 FIFTH AVENUE • NEW YORK 10, N. Y.

TO: MEN WHO LIKE HOT ADVENTURE

Don't miss the greatest adventure of the century-

THE CHUCK YEAGER STORY

Flying at 1,650 mph, he fell 50,000 ft. and lived.

Exclusive in MEN IN DANGER
NOW
ON SALE
AT ALL
NEWSTANDS

THE GREATEST BODY OF KNOWLEDGE...

Carnival

15¢

HOW KIM MADE
SIN PAY OFF!

(see inside)

